

Diagram illustrating a sequence of 48 operations (DRAW, DUP, SWAP, etc.) applied to a set of 6 elements, resulting in a final configuration. The operations are listed in a grid, and the corresponding diagrams show the state of the elements (represented by lines) after each operation. The final configuration is shown at the bottom right.